Dear Harold,

Thanks for the Holiday wishes & the same to you and your wife.

I fully intend to get you the info you asked for: Robt. Oswald's test., Rebling's bibliography (I thought I'd already sent it?), and I should have no trouble finding the info on Random House and the other publishing houses you mention.

Also: over New Year's weekend I will be spending time with close friends in Ocean City, N.J. (I met a JFK researcher named Bill Kelley there. He has published some articles, & mainly interviews w/ Chauncey Holt/3rd Tramp guy, and he has collaborated several times with John Judge. Do you know of these guys? & so, what's your assessment?) The main reason I mention Ocean City is because my friend Maryanne takes in typing work in ~~addition~~ addition to teaching & being a full-time mother. I'm going to talk to her about the feasability of you mailing manuscripts to her for typing & I will let you know.

It may be 3-4 weeks before I settle back down to work, so please don't think I've forgotten you.

If you're wondering why I've "reverted" to script after typing that "immaculate conception" it's only a question of time: While I can be gracious enough to acknowledge that I may not be the world's worst typist, I must insist that I am the world's slowest.

Again, thanks, and all the best,

John
